LITERARY ASSOCIATION.—The question of a "Pashan" given in the Cabinet this in the Field was debated before a large and attentive assembly last Friday evening. The question was given to the subject of the different literary societies, and the different literary societies. On that Friday evening, the following question was put: "What is the best way of securing the best of the whole, the North American Indian or the Pagan?"

GRAND DEBATE.—A deputation from the Liverpool and London merchants waited on Lord Esher to ascertain what is meant by the Russian demonstration against New Granada.

Father Mathew died at Cork on the 15th. Father O'Brien, the celebrated demagogue, is touring in London in Italian tunic.

Richard Cobden has published another letter on maritime law.

The London Times has an editorial, backing out of the Aeronautic Geographic and revolver shot. This report of the Aeronautic has returned to the United States.

Dr. Livingston, the celebrated African traveler, has reached Marseilles, on his way homeward.

The corporation and citizens of Portsmouth have subscribed £2,000 to give a banquet to the American officers in command of the British ship Resolute.

The naval service at Portsmouth contemplates a similar compliment.

The English papers republish the correspondence between General Wolcott and General Buller, mostly without comment.

Alfred Russel Wallace, the naturalist, has been interviewed by the Manchester Commercial Association, on the subject of growing cotton in the district watered by the River Tiber.

The British Government is about to lay a telegraph line across the Persian Gulf. The ship Albatross, from Quebec, grounded on the 25th inst., and was discharging her cargo into the harbor of Aberystwyth.

France.—It is reported that the Peace Congress at the Penitentiaries will be the same as before. Count Walinski representing France; Lord Cardigan, England; Count von Scharfstein, Austria; and Mr. Pacha, Turkey.

It is rumored that Cardinal Moreau's mission to Rome relates to the coronation of Napoleon, which should be consolidated, will probably take place early next year.

The Harro Journal has a Cayenne letter of Nov. 5, stating that gold has been discovered in several parts of the colony.

Many shipping casualties are reported from the Mediterranean.

In anticipation of the forced sales at the end of the year, more activity has been shown in the Parisian factories, but retail trade was not so brisk.

Disappointment was felt at the Bank of France not realizing its severe measures.

It was considered that 30 day discounts must be granted with caution.

Export trade was flat. A few orders had been received from South America and Spain, and but very few from the United States.

Commercial affairs were regarded as not unfavorable. Corn was falling, though not slowly, in all the markets of France.

Letters from Lyons stated that the market for manufactured goods has been quiet, with but little variation in rates.

Madrid commercial letters say that the opinion was strong among the French officials, and that the Finance Minister would probably resign.

Accounts from Valparaiso and Santiago represent these cities as still agitated, although not in open revolt.

Russia.—The text of the note addressed by Russia, at the end of October last, to the Powers, has been published.

It is accompanied by a circular demanding the re-assembly of the Congress.

This circular contains an exposure of the map taken by the Russian Cabinet, with a view to the fulfillment of the articles 20 and 21 of the Treaty of Paris.

As regards the late of Serpente, the Russian Government says that the Island was incontestably in possession of Russia before the rupture with respect to the Bessarabian frontier question.

The memorandum mentions two instances of concession by Russia with regard to the course of the Upper Yalupik and Bogdai.

The memorandum in defiance of the views of Russia, and states that the map from which the frontier line was defined at the Paris Conference, was supplied by the French Government.

The memorandum also states that Count Walinski asked Baron Brunow whether the Court of Russia would abide by the majority of votes at the coming Conference, and that the Russian Government telegraphed an immediate reply in the affirmative, and hence that Russia was claiming for the present victory.

Paris.—The last dispatches inform us that the alleged capture of Herz was still doubtful.

The conference opened with Ferokh Khan, apostle likely to claim the title of Constantinople for several months.

The statement that Russia demanded the seizure of Mirgala, is confirmed.

There is also a story of St. Petersburg, a doubtful report, that 20,000 Russian troops, under Gen. Eremov, are ready to march to the frontier of Persia on the first invitation of the Shah.

Italy.—The Bolton carried the intelligence that an unsuccessful attempt had been made to assassinate the King of Naples, on the 18th inst.

The assassin of the King was arrested, and the assassin of the King was arrested, and the assassin of the King was arrested.

Another dispatch says:—"The hayonet of the soldier struck the King on the side above the waist."

A third dispatch informed that the King was slightly wounded.

A fourth dispatch said that the soldier struck the King on the side above the waist.

The telegraph from Italy is wholly in the power of the Government, and hence the account of the affair is not reliable.

The accounts from Palermo say that the assassin struck the King on the side above the waist.

From Messina everything is reported as being quiet.

A quantity of muskets which had been laid out for the insurgents.

Count Lascaris, an eminent liberal of the Roman Empire, had been assassinated at Capri.

Prussia.—Prussia has communicated the substance of the Goranitz despatches to the Great Powers, inviting them to join in a collective decision, with a view to the settlement of the Goranitz question.

The President of Neuchâtel will have been judged by the time an answer to this circular of Switzerland is sent to have given a formal protest to the Chamber of London and Paris.
